

STOCK MAINTENANCE SYSTEM

The stock maintenance system allows one to record information on current stock prices and statistics and generate forecasts and reports based on existing data.

- The system retains information in a precise and ordered manner, organizing by firm, broker, value, historical value, etc.
- The manager, with their credentials, manages and views current inventory as well as orders.
- Purchases made are also logged into the system
- Supplier information as well as seller orders in transit are listed.